ABOUT THE ISLAND

Welcome to St. Maarten / St. Martin !

An island rich in natural diversity and landscapes, towns, cultures and activities. Our range of offerings, which includes pristine, serene beaches as well as vibrant nightlife, presents opportunities for everyone to choose their dream vacation. Its compact size makes any adventure within a one hour radius!

St. Maarten / St. Martin is one of the most well known tourist destinations of the Caribbean. Over the past five years alone, it was acknowledged by Tripadvisor as one of the top 20 destinations worldwide and one of the leading destinations in the Caribbean. Dutch side's capital Philipsburg is repeatedly voted as best place to shop in the region both by CruiseCritic and Porthole Magazine.

French side "St. Martin" is part of France whereas Dutch side "St. Maarten" is an autonomous part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Borders between the two sides have been open since 1648 and freely crossed, making the two nations a unique, mutually complimenting tourism destination.

PRINCESS JULIANA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

PJIA INFORMATION

Princess Juliana International Airport

Princess Juliana International Airport (PJIA) is one of the busiest and most important aviation gateways in the Northeast Caribbean. Serving as a central hub for regional travel, the airport connects St. Maarten with neighboring islands such as Saba, St. Eustatius, St. Barths, Anguilla, Dominica, Nevis, and Tortola. Its strategic location and modern facilities make it a key entry point for both leisure and business travelers.

Over the years, PJIA has undergone several phases of development and reconstruction to enhance passenger experience, improve operational efficiency, and support the island's growing tourism sector. These efforts reflect the airport's long-term commitment to safety, innovation, and service excellence.

Historical Highlights

- 1944: Official opening by Princess Juliana, marking the beginning of the airport's role in regional aviation.
- 2006: Inauguration of the modern terminal building by Her Majesty Queen Beatrix.
- 2017: Significant damage caused by Hurricane Irma, leading to major reconstruction and modernization efforts.
- 2020s: Continued redevelopment of terminal facilities and infrastructure to support future growth and resilience.

AVIATION

Windward Islands Airways Int'l (Winair) N.V.

We are a regional airline founded in 1961 and have been providing safe and efficient air transportation in the Caribbean for 60+ years. Winair is a full-service airline that offers daily scheduled connections as well as charter services from our main gateway, Princess Juliana International Airport (PJIA) in St. Maarten to the surrounding islands throughout the Caribbean. The airline currently utilizes 19-seat de Havilland (DHC) Twin-Otter and 48-seat ATR42 500 series aircraft.

Winair enjoys interline service agreements with several airline partners around the world including: Air France, KLM, British Airways, United and JetBlue. This gives Winair greater depth and reach, by offering customers greater access to destinations with value-added services such as checked-through baggage, etc.

Winair provides ground service and handling services to all airlines upon request. Benefiting from extensive experience with self / 3rd party handling, Winair is uniquely equipped to offer superior ground handling service at PJIA in St. Maarten.

Winair also offers Charter Services to all its destinations. The Winair team is continuously involved in training to ensure the highest level of safety and proficiency is delivered. With hundreds of years of combined experience in aviation, our entire team is committed to your comfort and safety.
